

Canine Cognitive Dysfunction Checklist

0 = none; 1 = mild; 2 = moderate; 3 = severe	Date:	Date:	Date:
1. Learned Behavior
- Eliminating in different parts of the house
- Eliminating in own crate or bed
- Going outside but forgetting to eliminate
- Incontinence
2. Memory
- Failing to recognize familiar people or other pets
- Failing to respond to known commands
- Inability to perform learned tasks/tricks
- Inability to learn new tasks/tricks
3. Confusion
- Getting lost in familiar places
- Getting stuck (in corners, under/behind furniture)
- Going to the wrong side of door
- Becoming unaware of surroundings and stimuli
4. Compulsive Behaviors
- Vocalizing with no reason
- Licking objects repeatedly
- Pacing/wandering aimlessly
- Staring (into space, at walls)
5. Apathy
- Not responding to stimuli
- Not showing interest in food
- Not showing interest in activities (games, walks)
6. Sleep Patterns
- Sleeping during the daytime
- Waking up and restless at night
7. Social Behaviors
- Not wanting to be petted
- Not greeting familiar people
- Becoming too clingy
8. Anxiety and Restlessness
- Having anxiety (separation anxiety, noise)
- Easily agitated or irritated, snappy
- Easily startled, seems fearful			